In 2002, Hastings began to offer an LL.M. degree in United States Legal Studies for students holding law degrees from foreign institutions. In its brief history, the LL.M. program has attracted graduates who have diverse international legal work experience from many outstanding law schools outside of the United States. LL.M. students at Hastings are required to successfully complete at least 24 credit hours of classes in order to graduate and are fully integrated into the curriculum, taking courses alongside J.D. students.

Tony Patiño Fellows-Elect

The Tony Patiño Fellowship was created to support those individuals whose personal and academic histories show leadership, academic achievement, ethical and honorable conduct, good moral character, dedication to human values, participation in public service activities, well-adjusted personality and good judgment. ## TONY WEST

*Assistant Attorney General, Civil Division
U.S. Department of Justice*

Tony West was nominated by President Barack Obama to be the Assistant Attorney General for the Justice Department's Civil Division on January 22, 2009. He was confirmed by the U.S. Senate on April 20, 2009.

From 1993 through 1994, he served as a Special Assistant in the Department under the direction of U.S. Deputy Attorneys General Philip Heymann and Jamie Gorelick, as well as Attorney General Janet Reno. Mr. West worked on the development of national crime policy, including the 1994 Omnibus Crime Bill. From 1994 to 1999, Mr. West served as an Assistant U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of California.

Mr. West later served as state Special Assistant Attorney General, an appointee of California Attorney General Bill Lockyer. In that capacity, he advised the California Attorney General on various matters including high-tech crime, identity theft, the Microsoft antitrust litigation, police officer training, civil rights, and police misconduct.

Prior to his return to the Justice Department, Mr. West was a litigation partner at Morrison & Foerster in San Francisco. His trial practice there included representing individuals and companies in civil and criminal matters. Mr. West is also a former member of UC Hastings College of the Law Board of Directors.

Mr. West graduated with honors from Harvard College, where he served as publisher of the Harvard Political Review, and received his law degree from Stanford Law School, where he was elected President of the Stanford Law Review.

Caps and Gowns

In medieval cities, the everyday dress of many citizens was similar to that worn by the participants in this commencement ceremony. The costumes of the medieval guilds and early religious orders evolved into academic garb in the 12th and 13th centuries when universities were first taking form. Different degrees are symbolized by slight variances in the color and design of gowns and hoods. The two degrees being conferred today adhere to this academic tradition.

The original purpose of the gown was to provide warmth in unheated buildings. The design indicates the degree earned. The gown for the master's degree (LL.M.) is untrimmed and has an oblong sleeve. The gown for the doctoral degree (J.D.) is trimmed in velvet with three bars across the sleeves and facing down the front; it has a bell-shaped sleeve.

The hood traditionally served as a cover for the tonsured head and indicates the subject matter of the degree and the faculty from which it was awarded. During the ceremony, the hood is placed on the graduate to recognize the academic accomplishment and to welcome the graduate into the society of professionals. At the University of California, Hastings College of the Law, hoods are lined with a blue chevron on a gold ground to represent the University colors. The color of the velvet edging on the hoods represents the subject in which the degree is earned: for law, the color is purple. The tassel is placed on the left side of the cap, which indicates an advanced degree.

The Mace

Traditionally at UC Hastings, the Associate Academic Dean carries the mace and leads the academic procession at commencement. Historically, the mace was seen as an image of warlike battle. Centuries ago, kings began to change this image by replacing spikes with precious gems and jewels to use the mace in ceremonies as a symbol of peace and leadership. Today, the mace is used in ceremonies as a symbol of authority.

Hastings proudly displays a mace which was donated by the Class of 2005. The mace was designed to reflect the history, goals and ideals of UC Hastings. The finial at the top points to the Way to the Future. The three rings, or beads, around the finial represent Mind, Reason, and Intellect. The large ball holds the medallion, a symbol of UC Hastings itself. The first bead under the medallion symbolizes UC Hastings as the oldest law school in California. The two beads below represent Morality and Professional Honor. The three beads around the top part of the shaft represent the Vision of the Founders, the Hopes of the Professors, and the Desires of the Students. The body of the mace represents that which is conveyed in the Present. The pointed tail of the mace represents that which was gained from the Past. The mace itself is made from California redwood.
